

FRENCH SOLDIERS CAPTURE HAM AND CHAUNY; HUN RETREAT ON 150-MILE FRONT CONTINUES

ENEMY NOW IS DOOMED--FRENCH AMBASSADOR

Address Made at Celebration of Lafayette's Birthday

TEDDY ALSO SPEAKS

Country Warned to Beware of Next Insidious German Peace Offensive

AMERICAN FORCES ARE PRAISED

Yankees Welcomed in Castle and in Hut, Frenchman Declares

New York, Sept. 6.—A stirring address by Julius Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States, in which he asserted that "the enemy is doomed," and "we shall choose and appoint the day for peace," brought to an end tonight New York's celebration of the 151st birthday anniversary of the Marquis de Lafayette and the fourth anniversary of the first battle of the Marne. In his address, delivered at a banquet of the French-American society, M. Jusserand paid tribute to America's efforts in the war, showed the insincerity of former German peace offers, and predicted that the enemy's next peace offensive "will fail as well as his other offensives."

Tonight's meeting, however, was only one feature of the program arranged for the joint celebration. At an impressive ceremony in the city hall, were read messages from American and Allied leaders, all expressing confidence in ultimate victory.

Messages from War Leaders.

One from Marshal Foch asserted that if the Allies deal could open their eyes, "they would see the blue sky." The other messages were from President Poincaré, Marshal Joffre, General Pershing, Ambassador Sharp, Admiral Sims, and Count Dia Celler, Italian ambassador to the United States.

Addresses were delivered by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and John Jay Chapman and M. Jusserand, who reviewed America's war efforts and declared that the Germans "with their thousands of spies and their millions of dollars for what they were pleased to call propaganda (which included murder) had no idea that this could be done."

M. Jusserand described the American forces in France as "a valiant army, the pride of which is on every lip, a useful, cheerful army, whose every soldier is welcomed in the castle and in the hut; an immense army that ceaselessly grows."

"The enemy is doomed," he asserted. "The day is unknown; the fact is certain. The enemy feels anxious; when he feels anxious, he raises his eyes to heaven, deplores the slaughter, complains of his being friendless and lonely, and wonders at the heartlessness of us who will not desert; he haggles of peace. They think they can lure us, having lured others; but they are mistaken; our peoples know how to read, they can even read between the lines."

"America Is a Fighting Nation."

Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the Interior, who followed M. Jusserand, declared that "America is, indeed, a fighting nation," and that her answer "to the smugging of the Lusitania, bombing of Red Cross hospitals, crucifixion of Canadians, mustard gas and all the horrors of Belgium, is the registration for military service of 35 million men."

America's fighting army in France next year must surpass in numbers either the French or British armies there, declared Theodore Roosevelt next. He insisted also that the Austro-Hungarian and Turkish empires must both be broken up, all the subject peoples liberated, and the Turk must be driven from Europe.

Referring to France's services to America in the revolution, Colonel Roosevelt declared that, in the present war, France, England, Italy and the other Allies had rendered similar services. The Belgians and the Serbians, he said had been fighting for America when they fought for themselves.

Messages from President Wilson, King George, Marshal Foch and Andre Tardieu were read at the banquet. After expressing the deep appreciation of Lafayette felt by Americans, President Wilson's message continued:

"We are in a better position now, perhaps, than we ever were before, to realize what it meant that men like Lafayette should have joined their forces with ours in a great struggle."

FIVE LIVES LOST WHEN TWO STEAMERS COLLIDE

United Fruit Company's Vessel, Almirante, Sunk by U.S. Supply Ship Hisco in Fog

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The United Fruit company's steamer, Almirante, has been sunk at sea in collision with the United States supply ship Hisco, the navy department was advised today. The place of the collision was not stated, nor was there any mention of the loss of life.

New York, Sept. 6.—The Almirante left here yesterday, bound for West Indian and Central American ports, in command of Capt. Grant, who, it is understood, was saved. The number of her passengers was said to be small. She was a vessel of 5,000 tons gross, built in Belfast, Ireland, in 1909.

The liner was one of the first ships operated by the United Fruit company between New York and Central American ports and up until 1914 was under the British flag, when, with other ships of the line, she was given American registry. One of the noteworthy chronicles in the log of the vessel was the incident of her rescue of the passengers and crew of the steam yacht Warrior, owned by Frederick W. Vanderbilt, which stranded at the mouth of the Magdalena river, Colombia.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 6.—Five lives are reported lost when the United Fruit company's steamer Almirante was sunk by the Hisco. The Hisco picked up four of the dead along with the survivors and the crew of a coast guard station picked up the body of the fifth victim and placed it on board the Hisco.

The Almirante, it was said, was struck just off her bow and went down in four minutes. Most of those on board had time to get into the lifeboats, which were all picked up after a hard fight on a rough sea.

Naval intelligence officers have taken charge of the investigation and refused information until they have made their reports.

Survivors of the Almirante were brought here tonight. Eight of them landed. Naval intelligence officers met them at the pier and escorted them up-town for examination. Five bodies were also brought here.

LENINE REPORTED WEAKER.

London, England, Sept. 6.—The condition of the Bolshevik premier, Lenin, against whose life an attempt was made last week, is weaker, according to a Russian wireless dispatch received here tonight from Moscow. His temperature is higher as the result of effusion of blood in the pleura and shoulder.

AMERICANS ARRIVE IN SWEDEN.

The Italian military commission, accompanied the Americans from Moscow.

FREE TRADE IS URGED.

Derby, England, Sept. 6.—The British labor congress, by a majority of 5 to 1, today passed a resolution to the effect that the war has not changed the soundness of the principle of free trade and urging upon the government the danger of imposing tariffs or imposts.

G. O. P. STATE COMMITTEE MEETS

New York, Sept. 6.—The Republican state committee, it was announced today, will meet here on Monday, September 16, to organize and discuss campaign plans. No change in the offices of the committee is expected, it was said.

Washington Also Celebrates.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—President Wilson was the guest of honor of Secretary Daniels and Count de Chamborin, great-grand-son of the Marquis de Lafayette and counselor of the French embassy, were the speakers at the joint celebration here today of the 151st anniversary of the birth of Lafayette and the fourth anniversary of the first battle of the Marne. Messages to the American people from President Poincaré, of France, and Marshal Joffre were read. The exercises were held at the foot of Lafayette statue in Lafayette square across Pennsylvania avenue from the White House and were under the auspices of the Daughters and Sons of the American Revolution.

SENATE PASSES THE NATIONAL "DRY" MEASURE

Calls For Nation-Wide Prohibition Beginning First of Next July

HOUSE NOW ACTS ON BILL

DRY LEADERS ARE CONFIDENT

Expect Constitutional Amendment to be Ratified before Demobilization Takes Place

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The twelve million dollar agricultural appropriation bill, with its rider for national prohibition from next July 1 until the American armies are demobilized after the war, was passed tonight by the senate without a roll call.

Before final passage of the measure, the senate voted 45 to 6 to retain the prohibition rider. A final effort to postpone the effective date of the "dry" legislation to December 30, 1919, was defeated.

The bill now goes to the house and, because of the many amendments inserted by the senate, it undoubtedly will be sent to conference. Prohibition leaders, however, expect the house to agree to the "dry" rider so that there will be no possibility of changes being made by the senate and house managers.

Those Opposed to Prohibition.

Senators voting against retaining the dry legislation in the bill were Brandegee, of Connecticut; Gerry, of Rhode Island; Phelan, of California; Pomeroy, of Ohio; Ramsdell, of Louisiana; and Underwood, of Alabama, while it was announced that many members absent and paired favored the amendment.

As returned to the house, the prohibition clause—a compromise effected last week by senate "wet" and "dry" leaders would stop the sale of all intoxicating beverages next June 30 except for export, medicinal, sacramental, and other than beverage purposes, and would prohibit their manufacture after May 1.

The compromise prohibition "rider" was regarded as the most important provision of the emergency agricultural bill. It is a substitute for that of Representative Randall of California, adopted by the house last May, prohibiting use of the bill's appropriations until the president should exercise his authority in the food control law to stop manufacture of beer and wine as well as whiskey during the war, as a food conservation measure.

Senate Conference Appointed.

After passage of the bill, the senate conference—all regarded friendly to the legislation—were appointed: Gore, of Oklahoma; Smith, of South Carolina; Smith, of Georgia; Kenyon, of Iowa; and France, of Maryland.

How long the bill will be in conference was regarded doubtful. Prohibition advocates soon will go to the President, who participated in conferences culminating in the senate compromise for extension of the effective date.

Eleven-hour efforts to extend the time for manufacture of beer and wine and disposal of stocks of intoxicating beverages were futile, the senate rejecting without a roll call an amendment by Senator Phelan of California to make the provision effective December 30, 1919.

The senate also defeated an effort toward federal payment for stocks of distilled spirits unsold June 30, 1919, and rejected, 35 to 15, an amendment of Senator Bankhead of Alabama, proposing a presidential commission to report to congress the actual value, not exceeding cost, of such spirits, with a view to an appropriation for reimbursement of owners.

Wine Industries Are Worried.

During the senate controversy, opponents of the bill—especially spokesmen for wine industries—declared it will retain many interests by not giving them enough time to close up their affairs. Effects on federal revenues and the new war tax bill also were arguments used by the opposition.

Prohibition leaders say that demobilization of troops may require one or two years after the war, continuing operation of the law certainly until after the spring of 1920, when they confidently expect the national constitutional amendment for prohibition will have been ratified by the states.

Two Men are Held for Chicago Bomb Outrage

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—Two men named Wilson were taken into custody today in connection with the planting of a bomb in the federal building Wednesday, and both have been identified as having been in the post office shortly before the explosion that killed four persons and maimed many others. The police do not charge that either man was implicated in the plot, but State Attorney Hoyne tonight said that one of the Wilsons was the man who placed the bomb.

J. W. Wilson was arrested last night. He was once clerk for William D. Haywood, convicted secretary of the I. W. W. He said he was in the federal building shortly before the explosion, but simply to assist Haywood, who was there when the bomb detonated, was accused of implication in the plot today by State Assistant Attorney Sullivan.

U-BOAT ATTACKS ARMY TRANSPORT

Mount Vernon, Former German Ocean Liner, Torpedoed Off French Coast

VESSEL REACHES PORT

Was Homeward Bound With Sick and Wounded—No Casualties are Reported

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The United States army transport Mount Vernon, formerly the North German liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie, was torpedoed by an enemy submarine yesterday 200 miles from the coast of France while homeward bound, but was able to return to port. The report to the navy department today makes no mention of any casualties and it was assumed that no one was injured by the explosion.

No material injury was on board, but the big liner probably was carrying some sick and wounded American soldiers. In addition to her crew of probably 600 or 700 navy men, the extent of the damage was not given in the department's advice, but from the fact that the vessel was able to return to France at a speed of 14 knots, officials concluded that she was not badly damaged.

The Mount Vernon is the second of the great German liners taken over when this country went to war, to be torpedoed. The first was the President Lincoln, which was sunk recently when some 400 miles off the coast of France while homeward bound.

The Kronprinzessin Cecilie was seized by customs officials for the shipping board, which had her put in sea-going condition, the crew having damaged the engines just before the United States entered the war. The navy finally took the ship over and she was converted into a transport to carry American troops to France. The Mount Vernon is of 19,500 gross tons and before conversion had a passenger carrying capacity of about 2,000. Her speed is 20½ knots an hour.

AIR MAIL ARRIVES AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—Flax Miller arrived in Chicago at 7:05 tonight with the first airmail mail from New York. He left the Eastern City at 7:09, eastern time, Thursday morning, requiring 26 hours and 56 minutes for the trip. Much of this time was consumed in an over-night rest at Cleveland, the aviator having been driven 150 miles out of his course yesterday near Pittsburgh.

Edward V. Gardner, pilot of the second airplane with mail from New York, landed at Westville, Ind., at 1:29 tonight on account of smoke and darkness. He will drive his machine to Chicago in the morning. Flares were kept burning in Grand park until nearly 10 o'clock when word of Gardner's descent was received.

145 CASUALTIES REPORTED.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The following casualties are reported by the commanding general of the American expeditionary forces:

Killed in action, 14; missing in action, 7; wounded severely, 78; died of wounds, 2; died from accident and other causes, 2; wounded, degree undetermined, 35; total, 145.

POSTPONE DEMOCRATS MEETING

New York, Sept. 6.—The meeting of the Democratic state committee, scheduled to be held here Sept. 11, has been postponed until Sept. 15th, because the earlier date conflicted with the campaign engagements of Alfred E. Smith, Democratic candidate for governor, it was announced tonight.

CUBS EVEN UP IN SECOND GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES

Boston Americans Are Defeated by Chicago Nationals, 3 to 1

PITCHER TYLER HERO

Red Sox Baffled by Opposing Twirler, Who also Drives Single That Scores Two Runs

ATTENDANCE AGAIN IS LIGHT

Despite Pleasant Weather, Only 20,040, Including Less than 100 women attend

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—The Chicago Nationals put the world's series on a fifty-fifty basis today by defeating the Boston Americans, 3 to 1, in a good old fashioned baseball game.

Tyler, pitching for Chicago, was the hero of the contest, for he projected a steady stream of bafflers and capped the climax by driving a single over second that scored two runs.

All of Chicago's runs were made in the second.

Boston Rallies in Ninth.

Boston's run came in a desperate and spectacular rally in the ninth. Strunk, the first man up for the visitors, selected a Big Leitch from among the bats, and slammed the ball against the right field fence. Whitman, who aided materially in Boston's winning yesterday, was cheered as he came up. His wallop was the mightiest of the series thus far, the ball smashing into the War Savings sign in center. Strunk trotted home and the Chicagoans, who had counted the game won, halted on their way to the exits.

Tyler, however, steadied and threw out McInnis at first. Scott was allowed to walk, and the gigantic Dubuc came to bat for Thomas. After half a dozen fouls, he struck out on a wide one. Schang, who was substituted for Agnew in the eighth inning, popped to Hollocher and the game was over.

Merkle started the scoring for Chicago by waiting for four bad ones. Pick bunted gently toward third and Thomas let it pass: him. This placed Pick on first, Merkle on second, while kind-hearted official scorers awarded Pick a hit. Deal died out. Killifer delivered a two jagger, the first extra base wallop of the series. Merkle scored and Pick roared on third. Tyler rose to the occasion with a single, scoring Pick and Killifer, but was himself caught trying to reach second on the play.

Fighting Spirit Runs High.

The fighting blood of both teams was up from the beginning. Umpires were growled and snapped at; the crowd grew partisan and way down in the depths of the Boston bomb proof, Knabe, Chicago coach, and Wagner, ditto for Boston, got into a fight. The crowd learned of it when players and umpires made a dive into the dugout and separated them.

Despite warm and pleasant weather, the attendance was only a few hundred more than yesterday, and the 20,000 persons present in many vacant seats. In the whole assembly there were probably less than 100 women. In normal times they come in crowds.

MANUFACTURE NO MORE BEER AFTER DECEMBER

Nation's War Needs Influence Food Administration in Making Announcement

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The manufacture of beer in the United States will be prohibited after December 1, next, as a war measure.

This announcement was made tonight by the food administration, which said the decision had been reached at a conference between President Wilson and representatives of the fuel, food and railroad administrations and the War Industries board. Factors which influenced the decision to prohibit the manufacture of beer after Dec. 1, the food administration announcement says, were the "future necessity of war industries for the whole fuel productive capacity of the country, the considerable drought, which has materially affected the supply of foodstuffs for next year, the strain upon transportation to handle necessary industries, and the shortage of labor caused by enlargement of the army program."

Warnings also was issued to manufacturers of all beverages and mineral waters that for the same reason there will be "further great curtailment in fuel for the manufacture of glass containers, of tin plates for cans, of transportation and of food products in such beverages."

Action along this line, it is said, has been expected by the brewing interests in view of the administration's order of last July 3, reducing coal consumption of breweries 50 per cent and a warning that they might not be able to continue business. Under national prohibition legislation, passed by the senate today and sent to the house, which enacted similar legislation last May, manufacture of beer and wine would be prohibited after next May 1. Today's order will move up six months the time for discontinuance of the manufacture of beer, although the breweries may be allowed to resume operations between that date and the effective operation of the "dry" legislation, if finally enacted, since today's order was "until further orders."

THINK OUR ARMY SOON WILL BE IN BIG BATTLE

Military Officers Confident Foch Before Long Will Use Every Man Available

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The hour when General Pershing's army will be thrown into the battle is rapidly approaching, in the opinion of military officers and officials at the war department. Developments today indicated to these observers that the German withdrawal was nearing the point when Marshal Foch would make use of every available man to prevent the enemy from making a stand in his old positions along the Hindenburg line.

Reports from the front indicated that the Germans were accelerating their withdrawal along a wide front before the French and British armies that are pressing urgently on their heels. Apparently, it is said, the enemy leaders feel that the line has been straightened out sufficiently to permit a quick withdrawal the rest of the way to old, well-fortified lines from which they launched their great drive last March. The fact that the British already have broken across the old line on the Douai-Cambrai front is regarded as the spur that is impelling the Germans to rush the last stage of their withdrawal.

There is no doubt among observers here that Marshal Foch has mapped out a plan by which he hopes to prevent the enemy from settling into his old lines and reverting again to trench warfare. It is argued that if the enemy attempts to hold the Hindenburg line or such of it as he can, he will have to mass reserves to do it. A new attack, far to the south and east of the present battle area will compel him also to rush reserves to that front and it is in such an attack that many officials are confident that General Pershing's army will be employed.

It is noted here that no effort has been made by Marshal Foch to extend the action to the front east of Rheims thus far. The sector between that place and Verdun has been completely quiet throughout the fierce fighting to the north. Many officers think an attack may be launched here with the object of turning the whole German line northward.

NOYON SALIENT BLOTTED OUT

(By the Associated Press).

Particularly heavy defeats have been inflicted on the enemy by the French in the old Noyon salient and by the French and Americans in the region between the Vesle and Aisne rivers east of Soissons.

To the north, Field Marshal Haig's men have pushed their lines eastward at numerous points into enemy-held territory for large gains and daily are increasing the menace against the entire German line facing them.

In the old Noyon salient, the French have captured the important junction towns of Ham and Chauny, with their railroads and highways leading respectively to St. Quentin and LaFere.

Penetrate Across Canal DuNord.

Across the Canal DuNord, they have penetrated at various points to a depth exceeding six miles. The little forest of Coucy, the western portion of the great wooded sector east of Laon that has stood the barrier to a direct advance eastward, has been entirely taken and across the Ailette river, General Mangin's forces have recaptured additional points, which have brought them abreast the old German defense line, outflanking the present German line in this region and that north of the Aisne, which is now pressing backward toward the Chemin-des-Dames.

The latest French official communication records the fact that the French troops on the north bank of the Aisne have re-occupied their old trenches and says also that eastward the Americans have made further progress in the region of Villers-en-Francis and Reuilly, which brings their front appreciably nearer the Aisne and also gives them a position which dominates the territory southeastward toward Rheims.

German Flight Now Serious.

All in all, with the old Noyon salient now virtually blotted out—with all its roads and strategic points in the hands of the French and with St. Quentin to the north seriously menaced by the British and the Germans in retreat from the Vesle to the Aisne, it seems apparent that the Germans soon must hurriedly re-establish their entire front in the west.

East of Peronne, the British are advancing over a front of approximately seven miles toward St. Quentin and have captured numerous additional towns. Where the enemy has attempted resistance, it has quickly been overcome.

In the north, further gains have been made in the direction of Cambrai and in the Lys salient Field Marshal Haig's men are still engaged in successfully narrowing down what remains of the old salient.

London, England, Sept. 6.—Villages captured today include Ploeghem-Bouvillers and one-half miles east of Peronne. Bovenconout, Estrees-en-Chaussee, Monchy, Lagache, about five miles east of the Somme river, and Quivieres. The British are at the western edge of Templeux-le-Fosse, three and one-half miles northeast of Peronne.

"OLD GLORY" AT FRONT

Illinois Men and Australians Follow American Flag.

Mother's Gift to Sergeant Inspires Men to Daring Deeds at Vaire Wood.

London.—When the Illinois troops and Australians attacked together at Vaire wood and Hamel, a sergeant of the American contingent took into action a small American flag, the gift of his mother. The men under him surrounded and destroyed a machine-gun post hidden among tree trunks just inside the wood. As they went on after bombing the German crew, the sergeant brandished the little flag over his head and shouted, "Come on, fellows; there's another one." Just ahead some Australians were fighting around a shallow pit in which were five Prussians and a machine gun. Two or three Chicago boys dashed up with their bayonets poised. One of them literally fell on a big Rhinelander who was about to throw a bomb and sent him sprawling with a cracked skull, and, with the Australians, put the remainder of the crew out of action and cleared a dugout behind of 11 submissive fugitives.

Still following the tiny Stars and Stripes, a little bigger than a pocket handkerchief, but as one of the men said afterwards, "looking like a regular 'ag,'" the Americans, shoulder to shoulder with the Australians, passed through the eastern end of the wood and out into the open fields again. "The first time I have ever fought under the American flag, Yank," said a tall, raw-boned Queenslander with a first-aid bandage round his head. They arrived at their final objective, a group of strong, well-shielded trenches linked with the rear defenses of Hamel village, and here the Chicago sergeant planted his emblem on a bit of wood and set it on the parapet. Bullets whistled all round it, cutting the silk into ragged strips and eventually it was wholly shot away save one unrecognizable fragment, which was preserved as a precious souvenir of an historic day.

SAYS WIFE IS PRO-GERMAN

Man Makes Serious Charges Against Mate Who Sues Him for Non-Support.

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—Charging his wife with pro-Germanism when she caused his arrest on the ground of non-support, Benjamin Burnham declared in court that she had destroyed four American flags, a picture of Washington and one of Lafayette and had exclaimed to him:

Burnham said that his wife took their children to the woods so they would not see the patriotic parade on July 4. He promised the court he would support his family.

HOUSE PASSES POWER BILL

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The administration water power bill was passed yesterday by the house, after leaders had failed in a second attempt to amend it so as to carry out the wishes of President Wilson that a "fair value" instead of the amount of the "net investment" should be paid by the federal or municipal governments in taking over power plants at the end of the 50-year lease.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIALThe New York Market.

New York, Sept. 6.—Another important step toward the conservation of credit for all but essential and productive purposes was taken today when the stock exchange adopted a resolution authorizing daily investigations of its members' loans.

This action, it is generally believed, will result in a further pronounced curtailment of speculative activities, if not a gradual reduction of brokers' loans to nominal dimensions.

Anticritics of the exchange were quoted as saying that the situation presented nothing of a disturbing nature, but publication of the resolution was succeeded by a volume of selling in which many important stocks fell three to five points under final quotations of the previous day.

During the morning, moderate unsettlement occurred, especially in the transportation groups, because of the dissatisfaction expressed at Director General McAdoo's form of rental contract.

Declines among seasoned Rails averaged little more than a point, however, until the extensive liquidation of the last hours.

U. S. Steel suffered an extreme setback of four points to 110½, from which it rallied a point.

The bond market also developed a reactionary tone, but losses were relatively light. Old United States bonds were unaltered on call.

Second National a Leader.

One of the leading banks of Central New York is the Second National of Cooperstown, whose report appears in another column. With resources above the two and a half million mark—the exact figures are $2,558,885 68— and with capital and surplus of over $400,000, it is an institution which well sustains the reputation for good management and stability, which it has earned in the 60 years of its existence.

Card of Thanks.

To our many friends and neighbors for their kindness during the long illness of our mother, the late Mrs. Sarah E. Fuller, and for their assistance and sympathy in following her remains, as well as for the many beautiful floral tributes, we desire to extend heartfelt thanks.

His Use for It.

Proving that the world does move, if you had presented a red seal light with a modern steel bath tub, he would probably have had it cut up into undershirts.—[The Dallas News]

MUSIC KEEPS OFF SNAKES

Berry Picker Plays Mouth Organ as Protection When He Goes Into Fields.

Altoona, Pa.—Henry Atherton, a Frankstown township berry picker, plays a mouth organ as a protection against snakes when he goes into the fields. He says that if there are any copperheads, rattlers or other species about they raise their heads and sway their bodies in time with the music and forget all about biting. The snakes are rendered harmless for some time by the vibrations and the berry picker continues his work with security.

TELLS OF HUN ATROCITIES

Gassed Soldier, Back From Front, Describes Outrages.

Robert Forbes of Bellaire, O., back from the front in France to recover from a gassing, tells that the body of John Leab Pelkey, a comrade, was horribly mutilated by the Germans. Pelkey fell in the same battle in which Forbes was gassed. Pelkey's throat was cut from ear to ear, Forbes says, his abdomen was ripped open and his back was slashed.

Bob Everett Wins Again.

S. G. Camp motored home last evening from Fondra, arriving at midnight, after having won the 2nd prize in the 24 hour race in which he took first money. The track was very heavy owing to rain early in the day and it was not until about 4 o'clock that the track could be used and it was not a very good then. Belandier was started in the free-for-all in which he agreed to race the horse was divided equally among the three to get the number of starters and Mr. Camp did not do the mare for a win. The first race was won by 2-27, but in the 13th race, having improved the record, stepped along some, finishing 13-1, lowering the track record a fraction even in the mud.

Punishment Will Follow

Whether the coverments of the Al has decree boycott for a period after the war against Germany doesn't much matter, for there will be a boycott that will enforce itself.

Women are a sisterhood, and the free women of the world are the ones against the oppressors. Of these women, the German civilization is a reminder has some feeling. But when northern France is evacuated and Belgium is delivered the horror will be fully revealed. With ravishers and torturers, enslavers and murderers no decent man or compassionate woman will deal.—[Minneapolis Journal]

Keivock Also Wins.

Keivock, the 2nd and the youngest of the string of S. G. Camp won the 27 race at Fondra on Thursday, his best time being 2:21. Mr. Camp will start at least two at the State fair at Syracuse next week.

Try a Classified "Ad" in The Star—They Produce Results

To the Men and Women of Otsego County:

The Republican primary election, which resulted in my nomination for Representative in Congress from the 34th District, was marked by bitter opposition to me.

To those who supported me with loyalty and confidence, I have a feeling of deep gratitude and a keen sense of obligation. Of those who believed my opponent preferable and who were led to that belief by distorted and untrue statements regarding the postmastership at Johnson City, I ask that they fully inform themselves.

In the town of Union, Broome county, where I have passed all of my mature life; and where Johnson City is located, I received 2,242 votes, or 87 per cent of all the votes cast. That endorsement by my home town folks, by the people who know me best, meant more to me than anything else, and I state the figures to show what the people who know me best believe of me.

I Thank You Heartily for Otsego County's majority and request that you again accord me the same approval at the General Election in November.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Elsewhere in this issue appears the condensed report of the Second National bank of Cooperstown, which will interest many Star readers, especially those residing in the vicinity of Cooperstown or who do their banking business at the county seat.

—If the weather is favorable Sunday afternoon the Oneonta City band will give another concert at Brown's park commencing at 2 o'clock. A feature of the concert will be a march "258," composed by A. B. Hill, a former salesman with Buckley Brothers company of this city.

—There is on exhibition at the Wilber National bank a specimen of spring wheat grown by the president of the institution. Mr. Wilber takes pride in the fact that he is an agriculturist and the wheat is certainly a creditable product, it rivaling any yet shown, grown in this section.

—Louis Fancher of Worcester purchased yesterday of A. H. Murdock an International 5-16 tractor and an Oliver gang plow. Mr. Murdock also sold this week to Henry Alney of Westville a 10 h. p. International Mogul engine and an 8 h. p. portable engine to Wickham & Youngs of Wells Bridge.

—The Oneonta Elks have been invited to conduct their burial service at the house at the funeral of the late Lynn B. Kenyon at Morris this afternoon. All who can go are requested to notify Fred N. VanWise before noon. It is thought cars can be provided for all. They will leave the Elks Home at 12:30 o'clock sharp.

—The winter time table table on the U. & D. railroad becomes effective tomorrow with two passenger trains each way daily. Trains leave Oneonta at 7:25 a. m. and 3:05 p. m., on week days and at 1:50 p. m. on Sundays. Trains arrive from Kingston on week days at 11:40 a. m. and 6:45 p. m. and at 11:40 a. m. Sundays. The trains leaving at 9:15 a. m., and arriving at 2 p. m. are milk trains and do not carry passengers.

FIRST MEMBER TO FALL.

George F. Record, a Member of the Cooperstown contingent of Co. G, Mrs. Johnson, wife of Lieutenant Royal C. Johnson, now with the colors in France, has received a letter from her husband stating that the first member of the original Company G to fall was George F. Record, who was a member of the Cooperstown contingent, which joined the company shortly before its departure for the training camp. His home address was given as Saratoga Springs, although he enlisted at the county seat. The letter states that he was killed by a piece of shrapnel which hit him in the head, killing him instantly. They were then at the front and while he met his fate the men about him escaped unhurt. The death occurred August 17.

The name of Record doubtless appeared in the printed list, but as the number of his company was not listed and his home address was given as Saratoga Springs, it passed unobserved here. No particulars relative to Record could be secured last evening other than the announcement in brief received by Mrs. Johnson.

The letter states that the company, which embraces only a part of the original Company G, was then in the front line trenches, but expected to move out for a respite shortly. So far as known to Lieutenant Johnson, Record is the first man of the original company to make the supreme sacrifice.

A Bank That Has Made Its Mark.

The attention of Star readers is called to the report of the Citizens' National bank of Oneonta, which appears elsewhere in this issue. The steady growth of its deposits is evidence of the confidence which is felt by the public at large; and the increase of its surplus and undivided profits show the quality of its management. Though one of the younger of Otsego county's financial institutions, its assets now exceed $1,150,000, the increase over the last report being about $75,000.

FAIR WEEK APPROACHES

SEVEN HIGH GRADE SPECIAL FEATURES ENGAGED FOR ENTIRE WEEK.

Oneonta Fair to Open Monday, Sept. 16, and Continue Five Days—Large Prizes in Racing Events—Government Seeds Exhibits—Reduced Rates on All Railroads.

Following the State fair at Syracuse from which it secures many of its features and exhibits, the Great Central New York fair will open at the grounds here on Monday, September 16, one week from Monday next. Already the finishing touches are being put in the buildings and grounds and by the middle of next week the exhibitors and privilege men will be arriving and before the close of the week the grounds will begin to indicate the opening day so soon to be here.

Indications point to one of the most successful exhibitions in the history of the association and with record crowds as the number of fairs in this section has dwindled so that there are practically none competing with the Oneonta fair in a wide area. While excursion trains will not be as numerous as in former years owing to government regulation, yet the motor cars will bring even larger crowds than ever before. Practically all of the privileges have been sold and the indications at present are that the midway will be well filled with novel and pleasing features that can not fail to amuse.

With the purses increased to the largest in all Central New York and the largest ever offered, $100 being the minimum, the races will be an even greater attraction than before. The management has been successful in securing the services of F. E. Woodruff, who has had 25 years experience as a starter and is now engaged in that capacity at Ideal Park in Johnson City, where his work is highly prized.

There have been secured no less than seven high grade special attractions for the roof garden and the entertainment of the throng, all of which are among the best traveling fair circuits. Prominent among them is the Trained Animal act, with a baby elephant and clown baboon, which has been landed after six weeks negotiations. Then there is Mile Torelli's Comedy Circus, consisting of five ponies, one unriddable mare, seven dogs and one monkey, which as a comedy animal act has no superiors. Other comedy is furnished by Mile Elmina and company, which also introduces some sensational balancing.

The Three Rianos present a jungle scene and appear in various animal forms introducing much mirth as well. The Five Maglans are coming with a musical novelty act which is refined and finished, while Miss VanDeine, the prima donna, will sing with the band, her voice penetrating to all corners of the grand stand and about the roof garden. There will also be a balloonist, who will do stunts in the air.

Federal and State agricultural departments are uniting in bringing an elaborate food display calculated to give suggestions to all relative to the food problems of the country. The War Savings board will have speakers here on Wednesday and Thursday and there will be a sheep and wool exhibit under the direction of the State college of agriculture at Ithaca.

Following the custom of years the dates will be observed as Old Home week in Oneonta and with the special excursion rates offered by all the railroads, including the trolley company, the number of fair week visitors in the city promises to be larger than ever before.

FOUR MINUTE SPEECHES.

For Three Days Will Emphasize Public Duty in Registration.

The necessity of enthusiastic and prompt co-operation on the part of all men between the ages of 18 and 20 years and of 32 and 45 years in securing a complete registration on Thursday next will for the four preceding days be borne in upon the public through the press, by pictures and in speeches. These speeches in Oneonta will be on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the city theatre. They will be only four minutes long, but each will emphasize the fact of personal obligation.

As was noted in The Star of yesterday, the speakers at the Oneonta theatre on Monday will be J. F. Thompson esq., and Hon. George L. Boakes; at the Strand theatre the speakers will be Rev. E. M. Johns and J. F. Thompson.

An Old Oneonta Man Says:

In past years many people have been looking for a hell of a time and have finally found it. Over one and one-half million of Americans are now over seas, risking their lives for a better condition in the world, and some four millions more are going. This week, 30,000 slackers were rounded up in one day in New York city. With higher wages than ever before, thousands of people are buying diamonds and jewelry galore, with no thought of having the hat passed for them or of soup houses later. But there are redeeming features. In Oneonta, there are 2,500 sensible people who have taken advantage of wise and safe state and government laws and have thus made small monthly amounts of $1. or more, accumulate to hundreds of thousands of dollars and are now fast accumulating two million more, for homes, farms, old age, sickness or loss of a job, through the safe six per cent compound interest system of the Oneonta Building & Loan association, which is protected by state laws, same as savings banks. Their idea of a hell of a good time is in having a home of their own, with flowers round about and a pumpkin vine growing in the garden. This opportunity is open to all. Who is wise? advt 11

NEW SECRETARY ENGAGED

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce, L. W. Walter, now secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Peekskill, was unanimously elected secretary of that organization to succeed Charles E. Westervelt, who recently resigned to accept a call to a similar position at Auburn, Maine, at a substantial increase in salary. No word has been received from Walter, but it is assumed that he will accept as he was recommended for the position by the American City bureau and recently visited the city and met with the committee of the Chamber named to recommend a new secretary.

It is hoped that Mr. Walter will assume the duties of the office here within a couple of weeks, although the definite date has not been announced. He will require a week or more to close up the work in Peekskill, after which he is expected to come to Oneonta and at once take up his duties here.

Mr. Walter is a man about 45 years of age and has had good training for commercial organization work. He possesses a pleasing personality, is highly commended as a man resourceful and energetic and possessed of initiative and tact. Before going to Peekskill, where he has been but a short time, he was secretary of the organization at Glens Falls for a period of two years, doing excellent work, resigning for personal reasons. The officers of the Chamber and citizens there speak in high terms of his ability and services and give him an excellent endorsement. Prior to his residence in Glens Falls he was in business for a period of years in Dunkirk, where he was prominent in the commercial life of the city and won an excellent standing. His recommendations are excellent and the directors are confident that he is the right man for the job here.

GASOLINE DEALERS PATRIOTIC

Oneonta Retailers to Refuse Gas or Air Sundays Except in Extreme Necessitous Cases.

While several gasoline dealers were with the government from the first and refused to sell gasoline last Sunday, an agreement was reached yesterday between them, whereby they all agree not to sell except in extreme necessitous cases on Sunday until the government request is rescinded. The dealers are to be commended for their stand and some of the garage men declare it their intention to notify all tourists arriving Saturday night that their cars will not be accepted except upon condition that they remain until Monday morning. The action of the Oneonta dealers cannot be too strongly commended and should be followed by all dealers in this section.

The agreement is as follows: We, the undersigned, do hereby guarantee not to sell any gasoline or give any air to anyone Sundays, except doctors or in an extreme case that we are sure is justifiable. This to be effective for each Sunday from 1 a. m. to 12 p. m., until the government request is rescinded.

YANK AVIATORS WINNING FAME

Progress So Rapidly in Italian Camps They Amaze Instructors.

MANY GUARD ITALY'S COASTS

America's Navy Aviation Camp, Somewhere in Italy—Back there at home you have all heard by this time of the thrilling exploits of American aviators on the Piave river—the army aviators who dropped their bombs on the frail Austrian pontoon bridges and helped turn the enemy invasion into a disastrous retreat. It is now permitted to announce that American naval aviators are also aiding the Italian defense.

For more than three months now these bronzed boys of ours, skimming the air in their flying boats, have kept their constant vigil of coast patrol along the Italian seashore, watching for the stealthy moving, blur beneath the waves that means one of the foe's submarines, scanning the horizon for the specks which might be overboard Austrian destroyers, or rising beyond the clouds that screen the enemy's seaplanes.

As a matter of fact, American naval flyers are co-operating with the navy of all the great allies in Europe. Numberless "eyes" are required down the long coasts from the North sea to the Mediterranean, and the United States is furnishing its share as "fast as possible. This work, of course, is all under Admiral Sims, but there is special headquarters for American naval aviation, under Capt. H. L. Cone, in Paris.

This system of American co-operation has been developing since last August, and naturally will extend in the future as our naval forces grow. In France naval aviators were the first to fly beneath our flag. But in Italy the effort of the American navy is comparatively new. The number of our men now there is a matter of military information—therefore a secret. But there are enough to have done plenty of useful work.

Our Flyers Relieve Italians.

The work falls into two branches—the taking over of the actual operation of coastal air patrols from the Italians and thus relieving Italian flyers for other duties, and the training of our own men for further endeavor in the same direction. Of course, the men who are actually operating above Italian waters are finished aviators, most of whom learned the game in the naval flying schools which have sprung up since the war along our own Atlantic coast. But the chaps who are getting their instruction in Italy are rapidly "catching on."

The American training school lies on the shores of a charming Italian lake circled by picturesque hills. Right beside it is another training camp for Italian naval flyers, and the candidates in both camps have developed a ready camaraderie. Our camp ends in a little public square which, in honor of the Americans, now boasts a new name—the Piazza degli Stati Uniti. Here the two flags—the red, white and blue and the green, white and red—float all day together. At dawn and sunset they are raised and lowered side by side before uniformed squads representing each nation. It is a bit of symbolism that counts.

Americans Make Swift Progress.

The lot of splendid American boys at our camp, most of them fresh from college, are getting on in a way that is inspiring. Many of them are already "solo flyers" and will soon be "turned out" equipped for active service. They are up at dawn, all of them, and more anxious about the weather than they used to be at home on the morning of the big intercollegiate football game. You see, every man is trying to squeeze in as many flying hours as the day will hold in order to pass quickly to his first "brevet."

Each is on tiptoes to "take a hop." This is naval air slang for a trip in the air. Their talk is all a jargon of motors and planes, of "spirals," or "peaking her over," or "straightening her out," and it falls more familiarly from their lips than even the homegrown patter of the baseball field. The instructors are all Americans and they are certainly on the job. This shows in the spirit of endeavor and swift progress among the men. Many of these students have seen service in France in other branches. No wonder their hearts are now in this bigger opportunity.

They are well cared for. They sleep in comfortable new barracks and have their meals at an officers' club, though you often see a man with his coffee and bread clear down on the beach so he won't miss the chance of a "hop." Inside the barracks they have fixed it up as much like home as they could, with bits of pictures and mementos tacked up on the walls and on days when the skies are tangled with storm the college favor comes out more than ever. For then all the young heads are bent studiously over books, "cranking on N. and A."—navigation and aviation.

French Tailors as Hosts. Master Tailors' association of Paris has passed a resolution asking its members to open their homes to American officers and soldiers of New York whose families belong to the profession.

Optimistic Thought. There is the greatest safety in the things that are the most honorable.

Drilling Hard Steel.

In preparing a drill to be used on hard steel, the drill should be heated to an even heat, the scale removed and the tip of the drill be touched to a drop of quicksilver and then be quenched in water. After this treatment the drill will go through the hardest steel without trouble. A simple method of tempering small tools quickly is to heat them red hot and then thrust them in a potato, after which they should be drawn to the correct temper to remove brittleness.

One Thing Man Must Do.

Nature never provides for man's wants in any direction, bodily, mentally, or spiritually, in such a form as that he can simply accept her gifts automatically. She puts all the mechanical powers at his disposal—but he must make his lever.

Implement Sheds Increase Farm Profits

THERE are two ways to increase farm profits—one is to increase production—the other is to decrease costs. An Implement Shed helps do both.

Many farmers lose time every year in repairing neglected farm machinery—special trips to town for new parts to replace the rusted ones—late starts in the morning due to a "bucking" binder—time out in the middle of the day because of a broken knife that last year's weather caused to rust. That time is all needed to increase production. Cutting costs is just as important. Steel parts are getting more expensive every day—and harder to get. An Implement Shed is cheap protection.

WHITE PINE for the outside of any farm building means minimizing building repair bills. It means cutting costs again, because it endures all kinds of weather without warping or twisting or rotting. Every board stays where you put it. And you can work it with less time and expense than any other wood.

It is economy to build well. And our service will help you. Practical working plans, specifications and bill of materials for the above illustrated Implement Shed—or any other type of farm building may be had, on request, of us—together with our estimate of the cost.

There were in all 555 voters, 620 in the first district in Richfield Springs, of whom 262 were women, and 225 in the second, or Monticello district, of whom 169 were women.

The vote on the various propositions was as follows:

The election was hard fought, many workers being out on both sides. The "drys" were supplied with motor cars, donated by interested citizens. They had also the assistance and advice of Abner D. Brown esq. of Watertown, an experienced attorney in elections of this character. Rev. Mr. Palmer, pastor of the Methodist church was the leader of the dry forces. Rev. Mr. Evans, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who led in the previous contest, is in France serving with the troops. He had instructions for a letter to be mailed giving him a result as soon as the votes were counted.
